Our favourite combinations

Improvers:

½ - 1 year of 1 weekly lesson + 2 - 3 milongas a week. If not, you practice with a partner at least twice a week. You feel confident with the most fundamental techniques; walk, sidesteps, ochos, simple sacadas and short giros

Intermediate/Advanced:

1 - 3 years, you practice a lot, take workshops, go to as many milongas as possible - not restricted to your own country. You like to test your skills with strangers and you move with confidence in a crowded floor. You have been, or are planning a trip to Buenos Aires. You are as curious as ever.

Location:

All classes will be in Prospekto pub, address: Gedimino pr. 2/1, Vilnius. <http://www.prospektopub.com/>

PRICES:

1 lesson: 20 Lt. per person
4 lessons: 60 Lt. per person
6 lessons: 100 Lt. per person

Pele Madsen

Former salsadancer and teacher - successfully renegated into tango in 2001, taught by his first and main teachers, Aldo and Susanne Velasques in Copenhagen and Sabine Rohde from Germany.

Teachers in Buenos Aires:

Demian Garcia y Carolina Bonaventura, Silvio Grande y Mayra Galante, Gustavo Naveira y Giselle Anne Pablo Veron, Claudia Códega y Esteban Moreno, Julio Balmaceda y Corina de la Rosa.

Pele don't teach classes in a regular basis, but have occasionally taught group classes - he has mainly given private lessons.

Anja Stellingner

Also a successful renegade, though she keep in touch with salsa - especially in London where she moved to this summer, to work and live, and where she already is very visible and popular in the tangocommunity. Anja took her first private lessons with Pele (and continued) and as a couple, they have taken private lessons with Claudia and Esteban, which is Pele's absolute favorites.
